

Biographical Note on Loizos Sionis

Loizos Sionis was born in Akaki on August 17th 1948. He attended the Primary School of Akaki and next the Kykkos Gymnasium. He joined the army in 1966 and served at the 187th Artillery Field Squadron in Athalassa. He passed his exams to become a Cadet Officer with flying colours and was discharged from the army with the rank of the Sub-lieutenant. He served in the National Guard until July 1974 and fell in Arkadi along with Costas Christofi on July 22nd 1974.

Source:

Akaki Community Council